

Adding a shortcut on your phone

When you add a shortcut on your phone the site will work like an app on your phone. It's a little bit different how to do it on you on the Apple or Android.

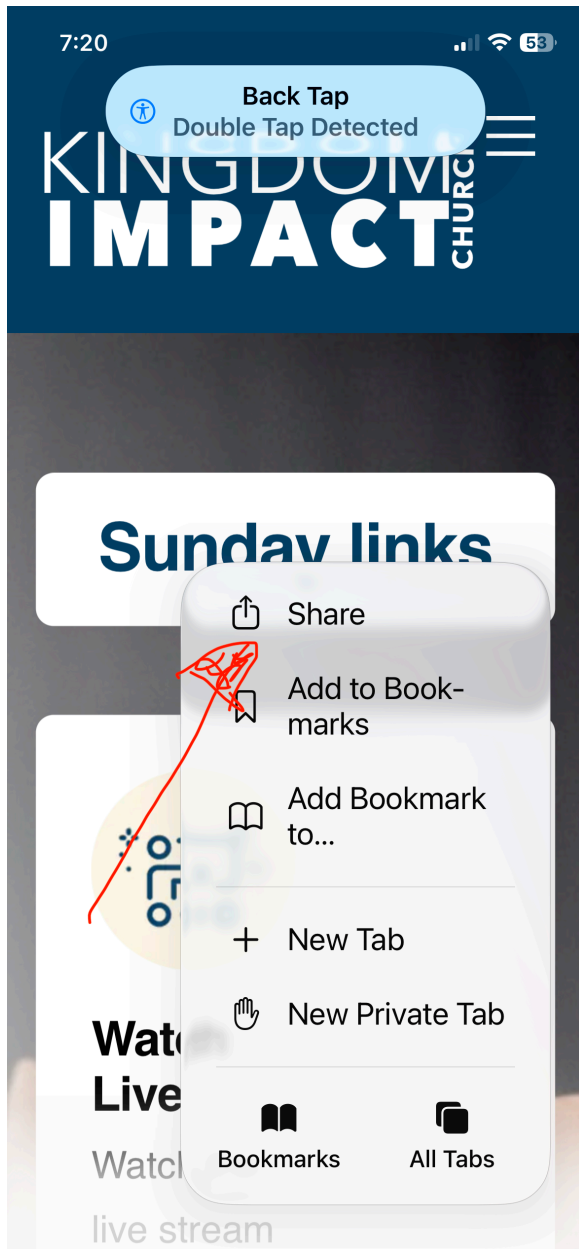

Adding a shortcut on iOS

To add a website shortcut to your iPhone or iPad home screen (which acts like an app icon), follow these steps:

1. Open Safari: Launch the Safari browser and navigate to <http://kichurch.ca/myki>

2. Tap the Share button: Locate the Share icon at the bottom of the screen (it looks like a square with an upward-pointing arrow)

3. Find the "Add to Home Screen" option: Scroll down through the share menu until you see "Add to Home Screen" and tap it.

4. Name your shortcut: You will see a preview of the icon and the website title. You can edit the name if you wish to shorten it or make it more recognizable.

5. Confirm: Tap Add in the top-right corner.

The icon will now appear on your Home Screen alongside your other apps. Tapping it will open that specific webpage directly in Safari.

Note: This feature only works in the Safari browser. If you are using Chrome or another browser on iOS, you must first open the link in Safari to create the shortcut.

Adding a website short cut on Android

To add a website shortcut to your Android home screen, you can use Google Chrome, which is the standard browser for most Android devices.

1. Open Chrome: Launch the Chrome app and navigate to <https://kichurch.ca/myki>

2. Open the Menu: Tap the three-dot menu icon (:) located in the top-right corner of the screen.
3. Select "Add to Home screen": Scroll down the menu and tap "Add to Home screen".
4. Name your shortcut: A pop-up will appear allowing you to name the icon. You can edit the text to whatever you prefer.
5. Confirm: Tap Add. You may be prompted by a system dialog to confirm; tap Add or Add automatically to place the icon on your home screen.

Note: Depending on your device and version of Android, once you tap "Add," the system might allow you to hold and drag the icon to a specific spot on your home screen, or it may automatically place it in the next available empty space.

Why use my.kichurch.ca as an app?

The page is set up with great functionality. The top links are to interact in the service. At the time we launch it, you can Watch Live, Give online (anytime, not just during the service) and Interact with the service. To interact with the service, click the button and find the bulletin for to current date. You'll see a heart and amen button overlaid (typically...some weeks this doesn't work). If you see the heart and amen buttons when you click a heart a heart will appear on the screens beside either side of the platform. When you click an amen an amen will appear.

Thank you for your joyful giving

Interact

Find today's bulletin and follow along. Heart and Amen as you'd like.

This doesn't stop you from saying "amen" during the service, but it's a fun way to interact with the announcements and the message.
